Cong. Gubser Lauds Farm Policy In Address To Rotarians

Congressman Charles Gubser, in a talk Monday noon before the Campbell Rotary Club, scored those who predict that a depression is creeping over the nation, contending that in so doing they commit a disservice both to themselves and to the nation. He said the unemployment record of today should be compared with the year prior to the outbreak of hostilities in Korea rather than during a war year when defense plants were running at top production schedules.

Rep. Gubser, whose home is at Gilroy, said there is no military crisis today at Dien Bien Phu storm center of Indo-China. We are not saber rattlers, but can not allow the Chinese communist to get a foothold and especially through a negotiated peace. He said emphatically that we now have the initiative and act while they react, in keeping with the new foreign policy.

He decried the charges of politicians that the 83rd Congress was a rich man's benefactor, citing point by point how the administration favors a health insurance measure, liberalized housing regulations, lower income taxes and other factors affecting the general public.

He said there is a public works program set up and ready to activate when needed, some three million dollars worth projected in this Congressional district alone.

On the farm program he held that Ezra Taft Benson, secretary of Agriculture, is the best friend the farmer has today, as a twelve year rather than a twelve month program is now set up involving flexible supports instead of fixed supports. The tremendous surplus built from a 90 per cent parity has tended to demoralize the market by encouraging farmers to produce uneconomically. All we need in the 10th Congressional district for stable agriculture outlets is to regain our foreign markets, allowing the law of supply and demand to take care of the rest. Fruit exports to Britain have increased substantially through conclusion of an agreement between that country and the United States. Gubser said he had called on FOA Administrator Harold Stassen last January to urge such action, the outcome being that Britain is to buy some $2,500,000 in canned peaches and apricots. Specialty crops, such as strawberries, tomatoes and other perishables do not benefit from fixed supports to the extent that commodities such as cotton, corn and wheat do.

"High fixed price supports have been a failure," the congressman said. "They have, moreover, been unfair to the consumers. They have forced the consumer to pay unreasonable prices for food and at the same time, they have not stabilized agriculture."

"In fact, the only farm commodities which today sell at more than parity are those commodities which are not supported."

The Congressman said there are many things being done back in Washington, other than what the Junior senator from Wisconsin is talking about, but that these perhaps are not so newsworthy as the McCarthy activities.

Program chairman for the meeting Tuesday was Clifford T. Cassidy. The meeting next Tuesday will be in charge of Dr. Frederick Snyder, when a kinescope feature, "Why Doctors?" will be concerned with the story of the human body. Dr. Henry C. Dahleen of San Jose is to be narrator.

Morton Again Named Mayor As New Council Installed

By unanimous vote of the newly organized city council Tuesday evening, Richard W. Morton was again named mayor to serve two years until the next municipal election. Mayor Morton said that appointments to standing committees would be made at the regular meeting next Monday evening on (1) finance and licenses, (2) ordinances and franchises, (3) public health and safety, (4) streets, sewers, land, parks and public structures, and to the (5) audit committee. Consideration will also be given to the office of police commissioner.

The meeting opened with the organization council seated including Councilmen Joseph Gomes, James Arends and Joseph Dahl, to whom Mayor Morton said:

"I can't imagine what the mayor's job would have been like in these two last years had it not been for your wholehearted and unselfish work for me and with me in these deliberations. You have done a tremendous service for the people of this city." He included Councilman Oliver Jensen, who was absent, and Dr. Snyder, a former member, in credit for setting up the structure of a sound city government, and he warmly commended the services of City Attorney Joseph Bonacina for being one of the few city attorneys giving written opinions for recordation.

In the canvass of ballots and opening of absentee ballots the final count was Arends 539, Morton 608, John Chargin 403, Gordon Daum 373, Charles Rose 352, Carolyn Coons 311, Verle Grizzle 307, Joseph Feasel 267, Claude Smith 238, Elmer Garrison 202 and Ray Gilpatrick 151 for council, Dorothy Treveltham 633 for city clerk, E. C. Merrill 623, T. A. Robinson one and Officer Doolittle one for city treasurer. The absentee ballots were Arends and Morton 13 each, Chargin 10, Coons 6, Daum 7, Feasel 6 and Gilpatrick 2.

The oath of office was given by Bonacina to Dorothy Treveltham as city clerk who in turn administered the oath to the newly elected councilmen Morton, Arends, Chargin, Daum and Rose and to E. C. Merrill as treasurer.

Mayor Morton suggested the new council turn to prayer for divine guidance in their deliberations in keeping with procedure of the Presidential cabinet and other governmental bodies. Councilman Daum moved and Councilman Chargin seconded that local ministers and priests schedule meetings and be at liberty to open future meetings with a prayer of divine guidance. (See editorial on page 2).

The council set May 10 as the deadline for budget requirements from department heads which will give seven weeks for council study for final adoption. At the meeting next Monday, appointments will be made by the mayor with consent of the council, of a new member to the city planning commission to succeed John Chargin who resigned on election to the council.

The council accepted a grant deed from Mervin Keesling and a quit claim deed from Standard Oil company for a twenty-five foot stretch along the north west side of Hamilton avenue where a service station is to be built, the deeded land to be the site for traffic signals to be installed by the state on city owned property.

EDITORIAL

PEACE TIME PROSPERITY

Congressman Charles Gubser, at a meeting of the Campbell Rotary Club this week said something about depression talk being a disservice to the country. He made no attempt to prove there is no unemployment today or that it is not a serious problem but did say you cannot compare employment in a peacetime year with a war time year. Government spending to be sure is a means of curbing unemployment and assuring prosperity. But the federal government cannot forever operate with a deficit, increase its spending and then cut taxes. We can have prosperity and peace at the same time and it looks as if the administration is determined to have it that way. The future of America lies in the peacetime faith and courage of its people.

BRAVO, LIONS CLUB!

The Lions Club has done a very commendable act in having receptacles set up at various places in downtown Campbell for refuse. With these at hand there should no longer be stray paper or trash litter about. With these come an invitation to cleanliness, so use them.

Recently at San Francisco a special committee of the state Chamber of Commerce asked for the cooperation of the motoring public to carry trash bags in cars and for communities to place trash cans along roadsides for the disposal of trash bags. They asked the state to enforce the anti-litter laws which already are on the statute books.

It is difficult to legislate roadside tidiness. But the placement of trash receptacles certainly invites it.

PUBLIC SCHOOL—AN AMERICAN HERITAGE

In Monterey one day last week, a convention of school teachers agreed that greater stress should be placed in the school curriculum on moral and spiritual values. A resolution adopted by the State Council of the California Teachers Association called for development in pupils of "a greater recognition of God and religion as basic factors in our culture, and inculcate a desire to participate in the religious life in their communities."

All next week is Public Schools Week. The American school system is the cornerstone of our democracy. Without a school we would lose our basic freedom and our whole way of life might then be vulnerable to subversive activities. In the classroom children learn to appreciate the American philosophy of government. They attain better personal habits none the least of which should be faith and fidelity. Yes, it may not show on the surface, but somewhere in the life-stream those characteristics might well be seeded for they become men of greatness in the prime of life.

A G-MAN'S CREED OF LIFE

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Bureau of Investigation has a creed worth knowing about which is:

"I believe in God and the inherent dignity of man. I trust our democratic principles and am confident that truth will overcome the menace of dictatorship seeking to destroy our freedoms. I shall strive always to do my best, to make life purposeful. By self-dedication I will do my share to create a better world in a spirit of love, humility and justice."

DO IT TODAY

Tomorrow is a convenience for placing things, a storehouse for unfinished business. The stuff in this storehouse often has a way of cluttering up our lives until it is cleared out. Some of the little procrastinations have no real effect on us. Others have. Putting off until tomorrow the effort of personal improvement can eventually lead up the blind alley of disappointment. Tomorrow solves nothing. It is only what you do today that counts.

GOOD LUCK, GOVERNOR!

When Goodwin J. Knight heads for Washington next week to attend the national conference of Governors, he will also take on a special role as credit man, or rather bill collector, in a demand on the U. S. Government in the interest of his State. He has declared he will ask for payment, now and in full, of the 62 million dollars the Federal Government owes California through the tidelands oil fund.

There is of course no question of California's right to the money. But as the Governor said, the funds should be put to work for the purposes set for them. Among these purposes are improvement of parks and beaches, for all to enjoy. Wise in the ways of government, Goodwin Knight knows that it is a mighty easy thing, back in Washington, for the powers that be to let matters lag or get sidetracked.

THE NEW CITY COUNCIL

One of the first proposals by Mayor Richard Morton as the new council was organized Tuesday evening, was to have future meetings opened with a prayer led by a local minister or priest. This would be in keeping with what a few other city councils and state legislatures are doing and now what each Presidential cabinet meetings do reverently. It is a simple gesture seeking righteous guidance, an example which our governments in all levels hold openly a belief in the existence of a supreme being, in contrast to the communist standard of disbelief. The Press commends this civic action knowing full well that nothing but good can come of it.

The Campbell Gambol

BOSCOBEL Was the name of a ranch south of Campbell on which in July of 1888 a voiceless minister came to live and where within a year he had entirely regained his voice, coming into Campbell to found what has since become known as the Congregational Church. Next Sunday the church will observe its 65th anniversary as it was on April 24, 1889 that Dr. William Windsor on invitation, held his first service in what was then a newly erected town hall. He said this was the happiest day of his life as his voice had come back and the attendance was unexpectedly large and it was insisted he continue the service. In three years a tasteful and commodious church building was started with no aid coming from the Home Missionary Society, the pastor and the congregation doing all the work on the building as it stands today, except for an extra wing, at 49 North Central. Dr. Windsor also held services at Cupertino each Sunday making the twenty mile trip by horse and buggy. He carried on as pastor of the Campbell Congregational Church for fifteen years when at the age of 73 he resigned. In 1908 Dr. and Mrs. Windsor celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in Yosemite valley and on September 8th of that year he passed away.

POPULAR MECHANICS Magazine, published in Chicago was founded by the two sons of Dr. and Mrs. Windsor, and the beautiful stained glass window in the church was given by them to the church in his memory. The magazine is still published by the Windsor family. During the civil war, Dr. Windsor was settled at Davenport, Iowa, and did chaplain service in the Union hospitals and to southern prisoners, then some eighty years later the Rev. Corwin Olds was a Chaplain with American forces in World War II, later to become pastor of the Congregational Church to this day in Campbell.

ABOUT 400 Members are in the congregation now and plans are underway for re-locating and the building of a new church, so it is probable that not many more anniversary services will be held in the present church building. . . . if and when this comes about, the stained glass window will always be a part of the church structure. . . . the Campbell High School Monthly in September 1908 reporting the death of Dr. Windsor said he created a tremendous influence in Campbell, being the cause directly and indirectly of a large number of people coming to Campbell. . . . A Rev. Joseph Bennet who was pastor of the church some fifteen years ago is back in Campbell again living on Poplar avenue and filling in as pastor at Calvary Methodist Church during the illness of Dr. Strayer.

KEEN INTEREST IN TEACHING VOCATION SHOWN BY SENIORS HERE

Last Tuesday, April 20th, the seniors of Campbell High School enjoyed their "Day" at San Jose State College. This was a culmination of work in determining their life's job. Perhaps the most important part of this job was done by Mrs. Elizabeth Dadmun's Senior Problems Classes.

Each student chose two vocations from 1237 possibilities for a thorough study. They found that books as well as people can be helpful in this research. Free materials were found available; General Motor material was found to be especially pointed. Industry is looking for craftsmen and youth to take the place of today's leaders. Speakers were brought in to help the uncertain; individual counseling helped cement choices.

Each pupil's "Job Report" had at least seven classifications. Part One described the nature of the work—what kind of people does the job require? Which aptitudes are necessary?

Part Two was concerned with "Education or Special Training Required." High school students are especially reluctant to learn that none of us are ever really through school; at least none but the totally unskilled can ever truly "stop learning," and unskilled jobs in America are becoming more and more at a premium. You can't "just relax" after June 18, 1954! Part Three was a summary of the Probable Trends and Opportunities in that vocation. It is interesting to note that there will be tremendous opportunities for people in service jobs for the next ten years; our present shortage of teachers, doctors, ministers, bakers, and "waiters on the public" will last for a long while to come. Science needs chemical engineers.

Part Four embraced all possible ways of entering a possible profession or vocation. The students learned that the days of "pull" are past; nowadays industry wants people who can "push".

Part Five was concerned with "Rewards"—of all types and not just the financial remuneration. It is interesting to learn how many high school seniors are as interested in prestige as they are in money. Mrs. Dadmun was pleased to find that an amazing number of seniors are seriously considering entering the teaching profession, fellows as well as girls. It is encouraging to find that young people don't think this a last resort, as young people did a generation ago.

Part seven was titled "Sources of Information." This was a better title than bibliography, for it referred to human being as well as books and pamphlets.

Jokers' Dance Aids Children

A dance, benefitting the Crippled Children's Fund, was held by the Jokers; local square-dance group at the San Tomas School last Saturday evening, with John White, instructor, calling the dances.

Refreshments for the benefit were presented by Mesdames Ken Oburn, John Crawford, Delwyn Hack, Ted Matthews, Earl Wight, John White, Don Radcliff, Ed Banks, Mel Newjahr, Ira Stamm and Mike Waterman.

CHILD'S DESK WON BY MRS. ELDREN NELSEN

Mrs. Eldren Nelson of 32A 4th Street, Campbell, won the child's maple roll top desk and chair at Helen's Juvenile Shop.

The Nelsons have three daughters; two year-old Loreen Gay and twins born the first of April, Julie Dawn and Joyce Diane.

Mr. Nelson is associated with his father at Nelson Brothers trucking.

Salvation Army Committee Forms

Senior Major Ruth B. McCann of the Salvation Army was in Campbell this week to organize a sponsoring committee similar to those functioning in some 240 other communities of Northern California and Nevada. These committees have jurisdiction over funds for local welfare needs.

C. F. LIVINGSTON

Livingston stated, in accepting this position, that "as a former student of Mr. Salmon at the Luther Burbank School, I have a great deal of respect for Mr. Salmon personally, for his clear thinking and for his aims and objectives as a supervisor."

Livingston further stated that as a young voter interested in the problems of government, that a man of Ralph Salmon's background and qualifications would be an asset on the Board of Supervisors in that he would approach his duties with fresh thinking and with an outlook of serving the best interest of his 4th District as well as the County as a whole.

Livingston's first step in the campaign is to urge all people to make sure that they are registered for the June 8 election and that they seriously consider Ralph Salmon's qualifications. Any former students of Ralph Salmon are urged to contact Mr. Livingston.

Anti-Annexation Meeting Held In Cambrian

A warning to residents of Cambrian Park to be on the alert and to report all annexation activities, and petitions circulating in the area pertaining to annexation, was issued by Dr. E. Shaw, professor of social economics of San Jose State College, and co-chairman of the anti-San Jose annexation group, as residents opposing the movement gathered in the Parker School cafeteria Tuesday evening.

Dr. Shaw presented a report concerning tax differentials in Cambrian and Union School districts, comparing the two districts with San Jose. He also stated "annexation to San Jose would cost veterans in the area a 16-cent monthly increase, and non-veterans $1.25."

Upon recent studies, Dr. Shaw concludes "the tax difference is so small, it should be disregarded, but the importance concerning taxation, is the control in the county over the special assessment district, as opposed to the lack of control we would have over tax expenditures in the city of San Jose.

James Ursted, San Jose attorney, spoke on the 114 acres of uninhabited area, east of Cambrian Park. He said "we should not be concerned about it as there is nothing wrong with persons owning orchards annexing to San Jose, if they want to."

Ursted continued, explaining the objective of the organization and outlined the structure including block chairmen and unit leaders responsibilities.

Many opinions were discussed during the question and answering period following Dr. Shaw's report, but complete accord prevailed among the 175 residents in attendance on one issue—to remain out of San Jose.

Warming Up For Lick Encounter

CAMPBELL HIGH CINDER PATH STARS MAY SET NEW RECORDS

The big date for Junior Morgan's Campbell High School Track Team continues to be Friday, April 30th, when they will engage Lick for the SCVAL title. Tomorrow afternoon's encounter against a surprisingly weak Mountain View team at 3:00 should serve as little more than a warm up. Boys who looked good in Monday night's intersquad practice session included Bill Gregg in the weights, miler Ken Beth, high jumper Olon Forrest, pole vaulter Sutterfield, and of course, the school's pair of hurdle champions, Cureton and Sprecher.

After Monday's preliminaries, Morgan said, "We're still out to take them all, and I think we'll do it. We're strong in the pole vault, discus, and shot, and only Brewer of James Lick can really give our hurdlers much competition. Lick has strong men in Aguilar in the 100 and 229 and Soldner in the mile, but we'll make up for that in the sprints, broad jumps, and hop, step and jump as well as the high jump. I only wish that we were a lot stronger in the 440 and 880. I look for some of our boys to break the SCVAL shot put and discus records this year."

After the Mountain View and Lick encounters, the local spike-men have still to meet Live Oak, Washinton, and Santa Clara before the NCS, SCVAL trials, and CIF Meet at Berkeley. Track Coach Morgan is assisted by Coach Jim Muir who prepares field facilities and lines up meet officials.

CAMPBELL HIGH SCHOOL GOLF TEAM IS SETTING SCVAL PACE

The Campbell High School golf team, under leadership of Coach Claude Cunningham has so far won six matches and lost three in the first half of its rigorous training schedule. Members practice Mondays through Thursdays between 2:34 and 5:00 P. M. on La Rinconada links.

The 1954 first-year "Tee Men" are freshmen Jimmy Brand and Art Duffy; Ray Kay, a transfer student from Los Gatos High; Bob Scagliotti, a transfer student from Gilroy, Richard Pringle, a transfer from Burlingame; Bud Feasel, a junior, and Garry Theroux, a sophomore. Veterans from last year are Dick Jordan, 1953 SCVAL Medalist and team champion, and SCVAL team champions Bill Lawson and Gordon Peffy. Any team member may win his letter if (1) he wins half the matches he participates in; (2) he reaches the finals of the SCVAL tournament; or (3) if the team wins half the matches the boy participates in.

Coach Cunningham says it is necessary to give the boys little training, adding: "We've had no drill sessions and I find it necessary to give only occasional suggestions to the beginners. The boys really help one another by offering helpful hints to one another during practice sessions."

JOHNNY OLDHAM OF CAMPBELL IS NOW A MOUND STAR FOR SPARTANS

Johnny Oldham of Campbell, former Buc Star, turned in a grand pitching performance Saturday in a double header against the College of Pacific nine at Municipal Stadium, going all the way in the first game allowing but one hit in nine innings, then returned in the seventh inning of the second game with two on and fanned three batters in order, to get credit for winning the second game.

Oldham in the opener won his fourth straight game, giving up but three earned runs in 36 innings. In this game he fanned 15 and walked six.

The second game was a thriller as two COP players got on base in the final inning on hits before Coach Walt Williams called in Oldham who walked the first man to load the bases then set the next three batters down via the strike-out route.

Narcotic Menace Scored In Talk

Ray Blackmore, chief of the San Jose Police Department, addressed members of St. Lucy's Men's Club Tuesday night at St. Lucy's School, Campbell.

Blackmore spoke on the narcotics menace and stated that the best way to combat it was to step up recreation programs, maintain an active police department and churches.

The San Jose Chief paid high tribute to the Campbell Police Department for its efficiency since the city has been incorporated.

Jerry O'Brien, club president, announced that a family picnic is set for June 6 at the Blackberry Farm in Cupertino.

Bob McCloskey will chairman a drive for blood in cooperation with the American Red Cross to build up an earmarked reserve for St. Lucy's Parish members at the Blood Bank.

Eleven members of the Campbell Police Department and Police Auxiliary attended the meeting.

Present were Chief Robert J. Locke and Officers Lewis Dooittle and Tom Casey of the regular police department. Auxiliary police in attendance were Capt. John Wimbley, Sergeants Don Locke, Vern Oives and Rudy Golden and Officers R. C. Foster, Richard Bebeau, Nick DeMuzzio and Al Cook.

'FROSTIE SYSTEM' USED BY TRACK COACH ROBINSON SCREENS TALENT

Buc trackmen have three goals to shoot for while competing for Campbell Union High School and for coach Junior Morgan. It is called the "Frostie System", and it works like this:

Each competing athlete is assigned (1) an individual goal, based on Morgan's estimate of the individual's capacity. (2) Each athlete attempts to break the Campbell High School record for his particular event, and finally (3) the competitor attempts to break the Santa Clara Valley Athletic league record.

For each goal there is a compensating reward. If the competitor breaks his individual record he is given a card "good for one ten cent frostie when signed by coach Morgan". For breaking the Campbell High School record, Coach Morgan foots the bill for a milkshake, and if he breaks the SCVAL record, the athlete is rewarded by a home-made cake baked by Morgan's wife.

Morgan says he owes two cakes now. One is to go to Al Peterson, who broke the SCVAL Class "D" record last year, with a heave of 94 feet, nine inches.

The old record of 86 feet eleven and one half inches was held by a Campbell High graduate, "Tex" Curry.

Another cake is owed to Marty Sheridan who last year smashed the class "C" record of 111 feet, 11 inches held by Booker of Fremont High. Sheridan tossed the plate 115 feet two and one quarter inches at the SCVAL finals last year.

Junior Morgan, as coach of track and field events at Campbell High has introduced another idea at the High School which seems to work well. With 130 Campbell students out for track this year, individual coaching is out of the question.

tant Vice President at the Annual Meeting January 12, 1954. Charles Hayes graduated from the Pacific Coast Banking School in 1952, a three-year course, conducted by the University of Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes live on Orchard Road in Saratoga and he is a member of the Saratoga Men's Club, Santa Clara Valley Shrine Club and has been active in social and civic affairs in this county for many years.

Richard P. Lynn, Assistant Cashier, has been assigned to Los Gatos to assist in the opening of the new Los Gatos office. Richard Lynn is a native of San Jose, graduate of San Jose High School, attended San Jose State College and is now enrolled in the Pacific Coast Banking School at the University of Washington. This school for bank officers is sponsored by the Bankers Association of the Western States. Mr. Lynn was first employed by First National in May 1935 and has been active in the bookkeeping and collection departments, and from 1941-1946 served in the Army. Prior to his appointment as Assistant Cashier he served as Head Teller at the Head Office at First and Santa Clara Streets.

Seniors and juniors attempt to find a "protege" among competing underclassmen. It is the duty of these men to coach their "protege" in their specialty, so that they get individual attention under the general supervision of coach Morgan.

Morgan listed some freshmen prospects which show promise in years to come. Among these are: Takeshi Niizawa, Richard Tomisaka in class "D"; Waldo Garza, Ernie Hamel in Class "C" and Ray Edwards and Jim Archer in class "B".

SCIENCE IN ACTION Is one of the popular courses at Campbell Union High School, many of the graduating students entering that field as a career due, perhaps to the excellent groundwork in training from John Meischke, right, the instructor. Here Dianne Bowman and Marilyn Uyeda, two of the laboratory aides, are demonstrating science in action.

Christian Science Lesson-Sermon

That unwavering obedience to the eternal demands of Christ is the only way to individual salvation and progress will be brought out at Christian Science services this Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Probation after Death" includes the following passage from the Bible:

"Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling" (Philippians 2:12).

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following passage will be read:

"Vibrating like a pendulum between sin and the hope of forgiveness,—selfishness and sensuality causing constant retrogression,—our moral progress will be slow. Waking to Christ's demand, mortals experience suffering. This causes them, even as drowning men, to make vigorous efforts to save themselves; and through Christ's precious love these efforts are crowned with success" (22:3). The Golden Text is from Psalms:

"Examine me, O Lord, and prove me; try my reins and my heart" (26:2).

SCIENCE COURSE HOLDS VOCATIONAL INTEREST OF HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS

"The elements in the universe now number an even hundred. A few fleeting atoms of chemical elements 100 have been produced, starting with the atomic bomb element plutonium, number 94, as the raw material."

Sound complicated? It may be to you, but it isn't to Campbell High School seniors. At least not to those enrolled in any of John Meischke's Chemistry classes. Meischke embodies element number one hundred and one, which some of us call personality. He has a great sense of humor and just enough theatrics to make even the dullest of old truths come alive.

This is news. We live in an age when it is important to appreciate Science in Action. The more complicated the formulas, the more we need individuals sharp enough to comprehend them. Students are sharpened to a keen edge of perception every day upstairs in Room 18.

Most students enrolled in chemistry are on the Junior level; the remainder, seniors. Of these students 95% are college preparatory students; the other five per cent in nursing or agriculture.

The course has a great impact on all the students coming at this critical time in their career. One reason is that Chemistry represents the "Big" course on the junior level at Campbell High School. It is one of the school's two major offerings, the other "Big" course being U. S. History, compulsory for all seniors. The reason is basically evolved around the ability of the students enrolled.

There are many significant reactions to this new challenge. To some it becomes mandatory to conform to this unusually dynamic material. Some resent having to stir the folds of their brain tissue. Others are sure that their way having been successful for two or more secondary school years certainly will encompass this strange new course labeled Chemistry. The sum of the individual differences ultimately develop a respect for the scientific method, for orderly study habits, for perseverance, and for laying down a firm foundation of study habits which will carry them on to a high level of success in all their future years of learning.

Surrounding schools of higher learning show this to be true.

Meischke opens whole new vistas of scientific possibility.

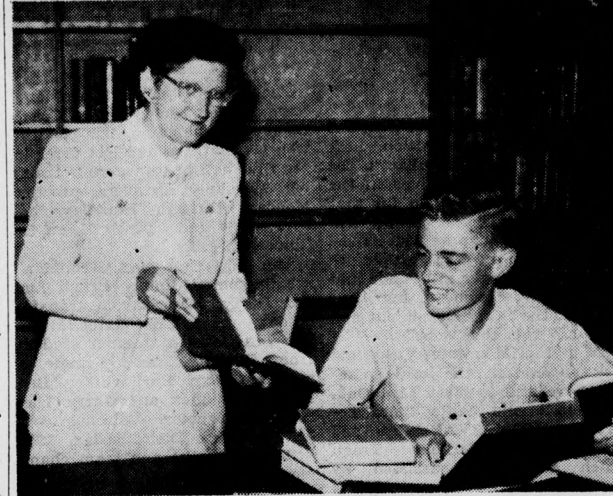

Gwen Robertson and Bill Coedey evidence this at Berkeley; Dudley Herschbach, Ron Emory, and Jon Dorman at Stanford; Paul Sakamoto at San Jose State; Minori Yamati and Charles Cantoni at Santa Clara; and Dick Kaufmann at Cal-Tech. There is a much longer list of college graduates now practicing chemistry in business and industry thanks to training received in the local high school.

Teacher Meischke is not one of the much publicized scientists developing new non-critical, heat-resistant alloys. More important, he is every day developing critical, consistent allies in a field so challenging that it will never be crowded. Mr. Meischke is responsible for many "live wires" in an age wherein each of us use more than two thousand kilowatt hours of electricity a year.

The man annual runoff above the Grand Coulee Dam is 77,200,000 acre-feet.

PG&E Property Tax Of $1418 Paid Here

The largest property tax payment in California history was completed today when Pacific Gas and Electric Company distributed final checks to treasuries of 48 counties, 182 cities, more than 1,500 school districts and scores of other districts over the area where its system operates.

Representing slightly more than a third of the company's total tax bill, the property tax payments amounted to $35,586,395, and broke the former record of $31,774,095 established by PG&E last year.

The total paid Santa Clara County was $1,179,001. Of this, the City of Campbell received $1,418.
